Talking and Listening Skills

It's great to develop our talking and listening skills by discussing current affairs with an adult or a sibling.

Watch CBBC's Newsround on iPlayer with someone and discuss the current news.

What's your opinion? Do you agree with what is being reported?

Story Writing

In class we are focussing on story writing. We use our imagination to create ideas for stories and make them interesting for others to read.

Visit this website and choose one of the photos or video clips to inspire an interesting story.

Instructional Writing

We follow instructions regularly. Rules for a game, a recipe to cook or even how to set up a new electronic device.

Can you write a set of instructions and see if someone can follow them?

Perhaps you could create a new game or how to cook your favourite meal?

*Aim to read for at least 15 minutes each day. This could be your reading book or a text of your choice for pleasure***

Comic Strip

Comic strips are a fun way of telling story but in a visual way. Choose an exciting event from your book and turn it into a Comic Strip. Remember to use speech bubbles and caption boxes to help you tell the story. Here's a link to a template that you could print off or copy onto paper

P7 should try ***

Reading - Creating Questions

It's not all about answering questions when we are reading a book. We learn lots from asking questions too.

Can you create some questions about the book you are reading and then see if someone at home can answer them?

Click on the link below to see some question stems to help you get started!

Personal Writing

When we write about something that is personal to us, we should include emotions and reactions to help the reader understand how we were feeling at the time.

Can you write about a time you felt excited, surprised or disappointed?

Or can you keep a diary for the time you are off school? What did you do to keep yourself busy?
